

Dynamic Risk Assessment Training

---

This training is aimed at Maintenance Crews, Service Engineers and essentially any member of staff that needs to have an awareness of health & safety across a range of disciplines.

Aims – for delegates to :

- Develop an understanding & basic knowledge of Risk Assessment
- Have an understanding of Dynamic Risk Assessment
- Have an understanding of the risks associated with Working at Height, manual handling & general work equipment
- Have an understanding of the risks associated with maintenance & repair tasks

Objectives – to be able to :

- Follow & understand the company risk assessments
- Undertake a Dynamic Risk Assessment for day to day tasks
- Assess the risks when required to work at height
- Assess the risks when undertaking Manual Handling
- Assess the risks associated with work equipment
- Assess the risks during maintenance & repair
- Be more risk aware!

This is an introductory course and can be customised to suit requirements and developed into a full day session or kept at 4.5/5 hrs dependent on need.

Duration:      Approx 4.5 hrs