

Power Press Regulations Refresher Course for Toolsetters, Supervisors and Maintenance

---

To meet the requirements of Regulation 9 of The Provision and Use of Work Equipment Regulations 1998 (as applied to Presses)

Outline objectives:

- To fulfil the requirement for training of all those involved in:-
  - a. the tool setting procedures and guard removal, replacement and certification
  - b. managing or supervising those activities, that the Power Press Regulations 1998 and its Approved Code of Practice and Guidance are applicable to
  - c. the repair, modification, maintenance and servicing of power presses and press brakes

Course Specification:

- The Power Press Regulations and its Approved Code of Practice and Guidance 1998
- The Provision and Use of Work Equipment Regulations 1998 (as applied to Presses) content applicable to the safe use of power presses e.g. Regulation 11 – Dangerous Parts of Machinery
- Relevant sections of: The Health and Safety at Work Etc. Act 1974 and Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999
- HSG 236 Power Presses: Maintenance and Thorough Examination

This course is designed for:

- press setters and setter/operators
- power press maintenance personnel
- tool room personnel
- supervisors and managers of the above activities

Course Duration – 1/2 day